Kemeraltı

Gulls are screaming

Smell of tea is blowing

Humid air touching us

Quietly dogs sleep in shade

The clock tower look us deeply high up

Sun is laughing like a child

People are tired but they love to be there

Wind whispers to our ears something special

Something from history that didn't change

Gulls are screaming

Smell of tea is blowing

Humid air touching us

Quietly dogs sleep in shade

The clock tower look us deeply high up

Sun is laughing like a child

People are tired but they love to be there

Wind whispers to our ears something special

Something from history that didn't change

Thank you for watching!!!
